Praise for the Festival

"The Palm Beach Poetry Festival was a profound experience for me. I realized I was in the presence of master poets, brilliant people, serious poets. One of the best festivals in the country, I believe. He poets come to the Palm Beach Poetry Festival with serious intentions about their own poetic imagination, and I can’t wait for next year. His event entirely exceeded my expectations."

—B.H. Fairchild, Claremont, CA, faculty

"I’ve been to and none are better and none as good—the venues, the performances, the poetry, the events, the city. It was packed to the rafters, and such joy builds during the week that we can’t help but sing along. Readings, talks and other events are packed to the rafters, and such joy builds during the week that we can’t help but sing along."

—Molly Peacock, faculty

"I loved the feeling of community. I realized I was in the presence of master poets, brilliant people, serious poets. One of the best festivals in the country, I believe. He poets come to the Palm Beach Poetry Festival with serious intentions about their own poetic imagination, and I can’t wait for next year. His event entirely exceeded my expectations."

—Anne Doolittle, Nashville, TN, participant

"I loved the feeling of community... most of all... that more can a poet ask than to bask in the friendly rigor of excellent poets, excellent students and the Florida sun? In this conference, devoted to the poetic imagination, we are in the presence of master poets, brilliant people, serious poets."

—Thomas Lux, Atlanta, GA, faculty

"The Palm Beach Poetry Festival is one of the most celebratory I have attended. The workshops are packed to the rafters, and such joy builds during the week that we can’t help but sing along. Readings, talks and other events are packed to the rafters, and such joy builds during the week that we can’t help but sing along."
